

Theater with a Mission

Presents the World Premiere of

Loco for Love

OCTOBER 1 & 2, 2016

SPEAKER SERIES

Interpreting Cultural Connections between Cervantes & Shakespeare

AT MISSION SAN LUIS

Florida's Apalachee-Spanish Living History Museum

Welcome to the world premiere of Loco for Love!

We hope you'll discover new riches in Florida's cultural roots this weekend, as our distinguished speakers lead us deep into Interpreting Cultural Connections between Cervantes and Shakespeare. We also hope you'll cheer enthusiastically for your favorite storyteller, as Cervantes and Shakespeare go head to head on the Mission San Luis Plaza in the dramatic performance of Loco for Love.

SPEAKERS

Dr. Ian Borden
University of Nebraska-Lincoln

Theater with a Mission rediscovers Florida's Spanish past by reviving plays from the time when Spain ruled La Florida.

We gratefully acknowledge the help of hundreds of people near and far in making Loco for Love possible – especially the 27 people from Leon County and surrounding areas who spent more than 500 hours selecting juicy scenes to bring Cervantes and Shakespeare back to life in a wrestling ring at Mission San Luis. Mil gracias, también, to our talented cast (listed here), and our generous sponsors (noted on the back cover). All of these people are making history by helping us dream this Impossible Dream.

Theater with a Mission's motto is "History in a New Light." Stay tuned – there's more light to come!
